

YOUR LAND, YOUR CHOICE

MANAGING UNWANTED MARKETING

Dear Landowner,

At Arizona Land & Farm, we understand that owning vacant land can often lead to receiving numerous offers and inquiries. Our goal has always been to serve those interested in working with us, but we also respect those who prefer fewer communications. To help you navigate and minimize unwanted inquiries, we've put together this handy guide. Even if we don't do business together, we believe in making your experience as a landowner more peaceful.

FOR IPHONE:

YOUR ADDRESS, YOUR PRIVACY

In states like California and Maryland, residents can request to remove their address from public records. To check if your state offers this, consult the National Association of Secretaries of State (NASS). They provide a directory of secretaries of state who can guide you on public record matters.

- VISIT NASS'S MEMBERS DIRECTORY TO FIND THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR YOUR U.S. STATE OR TERRITORY.

05 LESS MAIL, MORE PEACE

This won't reduce offers for your property, but it will help limit other types of promotional letters:

- FOR FEWER CREDIT CARD OFFERS, VISIT: OPTOUTPRESCREEN.COM

- TO REDUCE GENERAL JUNK MAIL, HEAD TO: DMACHOICE.ORG

06 A SIMPLE REQUEST GOES A LONG WAY

If you're receiving unwanted mail from specific companies, a polite request to them can make a difference. Most companies will respect your wishes, and their contact details are often on their websites.

If you've reached out to us about this, please know that you've already been removed from our lists.

- REQUEST REMOVAL

07 PERSONALIZE YOUR MAIL EXPERIENCE: A STRONG BUT REWARDING STEP

This step is a bit more involved, but it's one of the most powerful. Manage your mail with privacy and control using a PO Box or a virtual mailbox, available through the United States Postal Service and various private companies.

- POST OFFICE BOX

OR

- VIRTUAL MAILBOX

While we'd love the opportunity to work with you, we respect your choices and want to empower you with tools to control the communications you receive. We believe in building trust, goodwill, and lasting relationships, even if that means simply providing guidance. If ever you wish to explore options with your land, know that Arizona Land & Farm is here to help.

Warm regards,

Arizona Land & Farm
